Welcome to the VDHA!!

To JOIN the VDHA, you must NEVER have been a previous VDHA Member. If this is the case, we probably have at the very least, your name in our database, and we do not want to duplicate your membership. We will update your old profile and make it current and you will retain your original Membership number, no matter how long you have been absent from membership. So Welcome Back!!!

If you are applying for a NEW Membership, please follow these simple instructions:

1. Make sure the computer you are using does not have anyone logged on to the Member Area. This is important because the proper screen will not show if this is the case.

2. Select "JOIN VDHA" at the top of the Home Page.

3. You will see a window that looks like this:

Join VDHA

Welcome to the VDHA!

If you have previously been a VDHA member, we still have you on record, so please select Membership Renewal, and follow the directions on that page. This will avoid duplicate records.

If you want to be a NEW VDHA Member, and you have never been a member in the past, please fill out the form below as completely as possible, noting that all items with an asterisk (*) are required fields of information. Any additional information you care to give will assist in contacting you about your membership.
